Strange visitants from heaven descended every few days, and inquired of the Indians be manufactured at the towest prices, viz:

Resewood, Mahoganp and Black Walnut setts,

These were tutelar gods, and they consulted with the sages of the different villages, and advised all not to climb a vine which grew on the earth, and whose top reached the sky, and it was the ladder on which the spirits descended fram heaven to the earth, mate with one of the young braves, who dwelt in a cabin with his grandmother, and favored him with invitations to small with it among the various villages around.

The favor shown by this ged to the young man produced a jealousy among his brethren, and during the absence of his distinguished friend the favored one was much troubled by his neighbors, who envied him his situation.

On one occasion, when this persecution became intolerable, he determined to leave his country, and if possible acompany the spirit to the skies.

The chief men had enjoined on all the duty to refrain from any desire or any at tempt to ascend the vine whose branches reached the heavens, telling them that to do so would bring upon them severe penal-

The spirit, finding the young man quite card, incired, learned the true cause of his sorrow, and taking him, reascended. The old woman cried for his return, 'Non-

In the morning the Indians found the lodge she had inhabited empty and soon espled her climbing the vine. They shouted to her. Shay I ah-wos, be-ge-wain, mab-je-medi-moo-ga-yiesh! Hallo, come back Wholesale Grocers and Dealers in Rectified Whisyou old witch you!"

A council was held to determine what in ducement could be made to her to return They could hear her sobbing for her grandson. 'Ne-gah-wah-bah-mah no-sis. I will yet see my child.'

Consternation and fear filled the bearts of the nation, for one of their number was disobeying the Great Spirit. Indignation and fury were seen in the acts of the warriors, and the light of the transgressor's burning wigwam shed its lurid raps around.

The woman was just nearing the top the stars of heaven, and about entering that place when the vine broke, and down she came with the broken vine, which had be fare been the ladder of communication between heaven and carth.

The nations as they passed by her as she sat in the midst of the rule she had wrought pushed her declining head, saying, Whah ke nah mah dah bee mage men di moo ya yiesh.' There you sit you wicked old S. H. Molasses -20 Barrels and 10 half har witch.'

Some kicked her, others dragged her by her hair, and thus expressed their disapprobation. All who shall live after thee, shall call the Equa, (woman.)

The news of this disaster spread rapidly from village to village. Some numbers of men, women and children were singularly affected. Some complained of pains and others of pains in various parts of their bodles. Some were unable to walk, and others equally unable to speak.

They thought some of these fell asleep. for they knew not what death was. They had never seen his presence.

A deep solemnity began to reign in all the villages. There was no more hunting. no more games, and no song was sung to soothe the sun to its evening rest.

SHAKER SARSAPARILLA. Proof. More evidence. Read it. It is from Young lady residing in our city. CERTIFICATE.

CINCINNATI, Feb 7th, 1851. This is to certify that my sister, Mary C. Belim was attacked with a disease in her hip, more than three years ago, which rendered her so utterly helpless that she was compelled to keep her bed. All hopes of her recovers were despaired of. Some of the most eminent physicians of Covington and Cincinnati attended her, all of whom declared her case sopeless one. Passing by Dr. Howe's depot, an idea suggested itself, that to try one bottle of his Shaker Sersaparilla could do no harm. Accordingly I purchased one bottle, and before its contents were entirely used she received benefit. I was induced to try mother, and another; before the last war used she had nearly recovered. COUNTERFEITS. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

The Great Remedy for Consumption of the Lungs, Affections of the Liver, Asthma, Brouchitis, Pains or Weakness of the Breast or Lungs, and other affections of the Pulmonary Organs.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY is a fine herbal medicine, composed chiefly of Wild Cherry bark and the genuine leemed Moss, (the latter imported expressly for this purpose,) the rare medical airtues of which are also combined by a new chemical process, with the extract of tar—thus rendering the whole compound the most certain and efficacious remedies discovered for Consumption of the Lungs. INTERESTING CORRESPONDENCE.—Dr. William Y. Banks, of Xenis, Ohio, a highly respectable druggist in that delightful village, has informed us that the sale of Wistar's Halsam of Wild Cherry is unparalleled. The demand for it is so eager, that he can scarcely keep himself supplied with it.—He has had in his store medicines for lung affections. Some of these ways expensely good and reputation which it so richly descrives. What can prevent its sale, when on every hand can be witnessed its wonderful cures? The worst cases of Asthma, recent and dangerous coughs, (and also those of long standing,) Brouchitis or Consumption, (in its early stages,) are always cured by this remarkable medicine.

Hereditary Consumption!

Cured by Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. The following cure of Jeremish Isgrigg, of Consumption, (five of his brothers and sisters having died of Consumption) is truly wonderful. Ought not this urge the afflicted to make use of this health giving remedy, when it is effecting cures like the DI Gaalam, author of the famous works on "Vegetable Diet," says: "It is a remarkable fact in physiology that the stomachs in animals, macerated in water, impart to the fluid the property of dissolving various articles of food, and of effecting a kind of artificial digestion of them in no wise different from the natural digestive process."

DI Simon's great work, the "Chemistry of Man," (Lea & Blanchard, Phila, 1846, pp 321-2) says:—
"The discovery of PEPSIN forms a new era in the chemical history of Digestion. From recent experiments we know that food is dissolved as rapidly in an an artificial digestive fluid, prepared from Pepsin, as it is in the natural Gastric Juice itself."

In ordinary cases, stimulants are taken, which, by their action on the nerves and muscles of the stomach afford temporary retief, but which leave the patient in a lower tate, and will in jured faculties, after the action thus excited has ceased. Now compare this with the effect resulting from the application of the GALVANIC BELT. Alse a Dysperbic sufferer, seen in the worse symptoms of an attack, and simply the the Seit around the hody, using the Magnetic Fluid as directed. In a short period the innensible perspiration will act on the positive element of the Belt, thereby causing a Galvanic circulation, which will puss on to the negative, and thence back again to the positive, thus keeping up a continuous Galvanic circulation throughout the system. AN EXTRAORDINARY CASE, which conclusively proves that "Truth is stranger than Fiction." CURE OF Rheumatism, Bronchitis and Dyspepsia

REV. DR. LANDIS, A CLERGYMAN DR. A. H. CHRISTIE—Dear Sir: You wish to know of me what has been the result in my own case, of the application of THE GALVANIC BELT AND NECKLAGE. My reply is of THE GALVANIC BELT AND NEURLAGE. They reply is as follows:
For about twenty years I had been suffering from Dyapep sia. Every year the symptoms become worse, non-could I obtain permanent relief from any course of medical treatment whatever. About four-test years since, in censageymone of frequent exposure to the weather, in the discharge of my pastoral duties, I became subject to a severe Chronic Riemmatism, which for year after year, caused me indescribable ungui. I. Farther: in the winer of '45 and '46, in convequence of preaching a great deal in my own and verious other churches in this region, I was attacked by the Brouchitis, which soon became so severe as to require un immediate quence of preaching a great deal in my own and verious other churches in this region, I was attacked by the Bronchits, which soon became so severe as to require an immediate suspension of my pastoral labors. My across system sets souther outsile presentation of my pastoral labors. My across system sets souther outsile presentation and Rhoumatic affection—thus systeming that these disorders were connected with cesh other brough the medium of the Nervous system. In the whole plantmacopesis there seemed to be no remedial system which could reach and recuperate my Nervous System; every hing that I had tried for this purpose had completely failed at last I was led by my friends to examine your inventions, and (though with no very sanguine hopes of their efficiency.) I determined to try the effect of the upplication of the GAL-VANIC BELIT AND NECKLACE, with the MAGNETIC FLUID. This was in June, 1846. To my owner streeties. FLUID. This was in June, 1846.
